About the Lecture

The lecture will show the role of American Częstochowa as a point of reference for many initiatives aimed at preserving the national identity of the Polish community and pastoral centers.

About the Lecturer

Father Tadeusz Lizyńczyk received a Master's degree in theology and was ordained as a priest in 1998, after which he began pastoral work in the Diocese of Gniezno. In 2003, he completed doctoral studies in the field of catechetics at the University of Adam Mickiewicz in Poznań. He was assigned to pastoral work in Wolverhampton, England, and in 2006 he was transferred to the United States to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Czestochowa in Doylestown, where he served as Prior in 2008-11. In 2011, he was appointed pastor of the parish of St. Stanislaus Bishop and Martyr in Manhattan NY. In 2017, he was elected vicar of the American Province of the Pauline Order.
