Truth, Fiction, and Emotion: Portrayals of the Justice System in Polish and American Television Productions

Dr. Magdalena Pluskota & Dominik Gładysz

When: February 21, 2027 at 3 PM (via Zoom)

Where: Associated Polish Home (Dom Polski), 9150 Academy Road, Philadelphia, PA 19114

At the Polish Home; the speaker joins by Zoom

Free admission

Join us for the lecture, with pączki and coffee!

About the Lecture

This lecture explores how different media and legal traditions shape television portrayals of courts. It examines the relationships among realism, fiction, and emotional storytelling, and their influence on audiences' perceptions of how the justice system works.

About the Lecturer

Dr. Magdalena Krystyna Pluskota, of the Higher School of Management and Entrepreneurship in Wałbrzych, is a literary scholar, lecturer, organizer of Polish diaspora initiatives, and author of publications on culture and education.

Dominik Gładysz is a student at Secondary School No. 3 in Częstochowa who has secured admission to the law program at the University of Warsaw. He is a winner of national rhetoric and law competitions and is active in social and cultural initiatives.

Website: www.polishpeoplesuniversity.org
Questions? Email us: contact@polishpeoplesuniversity.org

This lecture online