Meeting the Author of "Głowaccy in Manhattan": Ewa Zadrzyńska-Głowacka

Moderator: Ella Wojczak
Przytulisko Literacko-Artyczne

When: March 3, 2024 at 3 PM

Where: Associated Polish Home (Dom Polski), 9150 Academy Road, Philadelphia, PA 19114

Free admission

Join us for the lecture, with pączki and coffee!

About the Lecture

Głowacki, Ewa and Janusz; "Ark on Manhattan" is their apartment in New York. There, in the 1980s and 1990s, artists from Poland, but not only, could find shelter. There, the author spent over thirty years collecting works of art and books. The description of the Głowacki collection is a pretext for a story about the author's life.

Organized in collaboration with Przytulisko Literacko-Artyczne

About the Author

Ewa Zadrzyńska-Głowacka is a journalist, director, author of short stories and radio plays. Her articles appeared in Gazeta Wyborcza, Polityka, Twój Styl, as well as in The New York Times and San Francisco Chronicle. Her stories appeared in Kultura, Literatura, Wezwanie, as well as in the collection of stories Lower East Side Portable. She has published two children's books in the US. In 2006, she began directing a film program showing Poland through the eyes of poetry fans: Poetry connects people. Currently, collaborating with poet laureates of various states in the USA, she produces documentary programs for PBS.

Website: www.polishpeoplesuniversity.org
Questions? Email us: contact@polishpeoplesuniversity.org

This lecture online